Third Term English Exam

Part One: Reading Comprehension (15 pts)

Read the passage carefully then do the activities.

Dear Mr. Paul smith

I am writing to complain about an exercise machine I ordered from your company last month. Unfortunately, what I received is completely different from what I expected.

To begin with, the advertisement mentioned that some assembly would be required. To my annoyance, it took four hours to assemble because an instruction booklet was not included. Having set up the machine, I realized that far from being portable, it was actually too heavy to move. In addition, the video did not clearly explain how to use the machine.

Most importantly, the "Super Workout Machine" is only designed to exercise the lower body, and is of no use whatsoever to the upper body. Your advertisement was definitely misleading in this respect. To make matters worse, I received the exercise machine three weeks later than promised and was asked to pay the full price, whereas in your advertisement you state otherwise.

Considering all the above, I wish to return the exercise machine and demand a full refund. I am confident that this matter will receive your prompt attention. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours faithfully,

James Brown
