"Notre-Dame d'Afrique"

Notre-Dame d'Afrique is a very beautiful church in the city of Algiers, the capital of Algeria. It is built on a high hill in Bologhine area, and it has a view of the Bay of Algiers.

The church was designed and built by a French architect named Jean-Eugène Fromageau. The construction started in 1858 and was finished in 1872, so it took around 14 years to complete. The building is about 45 meters high. It is made of strong stone and heavy materials, and it is believed to weigh several thousand tons.

Notre-Dame d'Afrique has beautiful arches, and colourful decorations. Inside the church, there is a famous sentence that says, "Our lady of Africa, pray for us and for the Muslims." This message shows peace and friendship between different religions. The church is not only a place of prayer but also a symbol of love, hope, and unity. Today, many tourists come every year to see its beauty, enjoy the view, and learn about its history.
