Part One : Reading (15 points)

A/ Comprehension (08 pts)

Read the text carefully then do the following activities.

Advertising is the activity of calling something to the attention of the public, especially by paid announcements. In the U.S, people who have products or services to sell usually advertise them through television, radio, newspapers, World Wide Web, magazines, books or through words and pictures on various objects found in the world around us.

Advertisers master the power of argument. They do this by convincing the public that the product they are advertising will improve their lives. People are more likely to trust a product if it is endorsed by a celebrity they are familiar with and like. This helps brands advertisers to take a shortcut through the time-consuming and arduous process of building trust with their audience and simply borrow some credibility from a well-known public figure.

Persuasion, which is the objective of advertising, is defined as the ability to convince others of your own opinion. Therefore, in a way, good persuaders have mastered the power of argument. Each year, U.S. businesses spend 135 billion dollars on TV, radio, and print ads. About one fourth of every television hour consists of advertising, and over 50% of most magazines and billboards consist of advertising. Advertising helps us attain feelings of youth, social acceptance, intimacy and power. It uses images and words to get these themes across.
